

CELEBRATION AND THANKSGIVING FOR THE LIFE OF

JACK FRENCH KEMP

JULY 13, 1935—MAY 2, 2009

MAY 8, 2009

AT TWO O'CLOCK IN THE AFTERNOON

WASHINGTON NATIONAL CATHEDRAL

THE BRIDGE BUILDER

An old man, going a lone highway,
Came, at the evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm, vast, and deep, and wide,
Through which was flowing a sullen tide.

The old man crossed in the twilight dim;
The sullen stream had no fear for him;
But he turned, when safe on the other side,
And built a bridge to span the tide.

“Old man,” said a fellow pilgrim, near,
“You are wasting strength with building here;
Your journey will end with the ending day;
You never again will pass this way;
You’ve crossed the chasm, deep and wide-
Why build you this bridge at the evening tide?”

The builder lifted his old gray head:
“Good friend, in the path I have come,” he said,
“There followeth after me today,
A youth, whose feet must pass this way.

This chasm, that has been naught to me,
To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be.
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim;
Good friend, I am building this bridge for him.”

PSALM 16:5-8, 11

Read by Jennifer Nolan

LORD, you have assigned me my portion and my cup;
 you have made my lot secure.
 The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places;
 surely I have a delightful inheritance.
 I will praise the LORD, who counsels me;
 even at night my heart instructs me.
 I have set the LORD always before me.
 Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.
 You have made known to me the path of life;
 you will fill me with joy in your presence,
 with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

PSALM 23

Led by Turner Andrews

Mr. Andrews The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

All He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

Mr. Andrews He restoreth my soul;
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

All Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Mr. Andrews Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

All Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

EPHESIANS 2:8–10

Read by Jonah Kemp

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

COLOSSIANS 1:12–20

Read by Kyle Kemp

We give thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the kingdom of light. For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

PASTORAL PRAYER

The Reverend Alistair Begg
Senior Pastor, Parkside Church
Bainbridge, Ohio

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Said by all.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
